Corporate Governance Statement

This Corporate Governance Statement sets out the Company's current compliance with the fourth edition of the ASX Corporate Governance Council's Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations (Principles and Recommendations). The Principles and Recommendations are not mandatory. Except as set out below, the Company intends to comply with all of the Principles and Recommendations and the Company will also disclose the extent of its compliance with the Principles and Recommendations in its annual reports.

The Board of the Company currently has in place corporate governance policies and charters which have been posted in a dedicated corporate governance information section on the Company's website at www.australiacloud.com.au. The Company is committed to high standards of corporate governance and behaviour.

Principles and Recommendations	Comply Yes/No	Explanation
1 Lay solid foundations for management and oversight
1.1 Companies should have and disclose a Board charter setting out: a) the respective roles and responsibilities of its board and management; and b) those matters expressly reserved to the board and those delegated to management.	Yes	The respective roles and responsibilities of the Board and management are defined under the Board Charter, a copy of which is available on the Company's website at www.australiacloud.com.au . There is a clear delineation between the Board's responsibility for the Company's strategy and activities, and the day-to-day management of operations conferred upon the Chief Executive Officer and certain other officers of the Company.
1.2 Companies should: a) undertake appropriate checks before appointing a director or senior executive, or putting forward to security holders a candidate for election, as a director; and b) provide security holders with all material information in its possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a director.	Yes	The process for selection and appointment of new directors is detailed in the Remuneration and Nomination Committee Charter, a copy of which is available on the Company's website at www.australiacloud.com.au . The Company will undertake appropriate checks before appointing a director or senior executive, or putting forward to shareholders a candidate for election as a director. Shareholders will be provided with all material information in the Company's possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a director, including biographical details, qualifications, and a
